

Friends of the GRDM OUTING

BUSCOT PARK, GREAT COXWELL BARN, THE PORTWELL BENCH, Oxfordshire

Wednesday 13th September 2017

Price £25.00pp to include coach travel, entrance fees and guided tour

DEPART GORDON RUSSELL DESIGN MUSEUM AT 9.00 am

Built in the 1780s Buscot is now the ancestral home of Lord Faringdon. Our visit will include a 40 minute guided private tour of the house, including the Pre-Raphaelite room containing the famous Briar Rose series of paintings by Edward Burne-Jones.

Lunch in Faringdon (at your own expense) will give us an opportunity to see the extraordinary Portwell Bench and learn of its association with Salvador Dali and the infamous Lord Berners. This outing will end with a brief visit to the nearby, much loved and much visited by William Morris, Great Coxwell Barn dating from the 13th century. We expect to arrive back in Broadway at approx.. 4.30pm

Please return completed booking forms (and cheques were applicable) by 2nd August to:
Christopher Hotten, c/o The Friends of GRDM, 15 Russell Square, Broadway, Worcs WR12 7AP
