

Friends of the GRDM OUTING

WINTERBOURNE HOUSE AND GARDENS and ST MARY'S CHURCH, LAPWORTH

Wednesday 19th July 2017

Price £28.00pp to include coach travel, entrance fees and contribution to Church funds

DEPART GORDON RUSSELL DESIGN MUSEUM AT 9.15 am

Winterbourne is on the campus of Birmingham University. This rare surviving example of an Edwardian suburban villa was built for industrialist John Nettlefold in 1903, This visit will include a 45 minute tour of the seven acre garden inspired by Gertrud Jekyll.

After a pub lunch in Lapworth, Warwickshire, at your own expense, we will pay a short visit to St Mary's Church to see the Hugh Birkett woodwork and the spectacular New Jerusalem stained glass window, installed in 2015, before returning to Broadway at approx. 4.30pm

Please return completed booking forms (and cheques where applicable) by 7th June to:

Christopher Hotten, c/o The Friends of GRDM, 15 Russell Square, Broadway, Worcs WR12 7AP
